PROTECTION OF THE VULNERABLE:

MAKING GLOBAL JUSTICE SYSTEMS WORK FOR THE POOR

DATE: TUESDAY, APRIL 20

TIME: 12-1:30 PM

PLACE: SAXBE AUDITORIUM

FOOD PROVIDED

SPEAKER: HOLLY BURKHALTER,
VICE PRESIDENT FOR GOVERNMENT RELATIONS OF INTERNATIONAL JUSTICE MISSION

Holly Burkhalter is the Vice President for Government Relations of International Justice Mission, a U.S.-based human rights organization that provides legal services in fourteen overseas offices to victims of human rights violations and works to make public justice systems accessible to the poor. Prior to joining IJM, Ms. Burkhalter was for nine years the U.S. Policy Director of Physicians for Human Rights, a Boston-based human rights organization specializing in medical, scientific and forensic investigations of violations of internationally recognized human rights.

As a part of the week-long "Price of Life Invitational," this special engagement with Holly Burkhalter will be hosted by the Ohio State chapter of the International Justice Mission. Through examples of IJM's casework in the field, Ms. Burkhalter will demonstrate the importance of focusing on the public justice system in an effort to secure structural transformation to promote justice for victims of slavery and sexual violence in the long-term.
